Many Cass county farmers are plowing up their wheat fields owing to bad crops. They are now planting oats.

It is said the people in Jerry Simpson's district out in Kansas are tired of him, and propose to dump him at the election this fall. A square Republican should be his successor.

The Republicans will hold the balance of power in the Louisiana legislature between the warring Democratic factions. It sounds odd to speak of Republicans being "in it" in any Southern state.

The business argument against the passage of the wool bill is that it will cut out of $20,000,000 of the national revenue. Our farmers are now no larger than the government needs. Hence such a reduction is impracticable.

When the Democratic party of New York endorsed Judge Maynard, it became a party to his criminal acts. His fraud is admitted as a part of the Democratic program of that State, and ballot stealing is made one of the planks of its platform.—Boston News.

We have had fifty-two years of protection, and the result is an increase of 50 per cent. in wages and a decrease of 25 per cent. in the prices of the necessities of life. The simple statement is a conclusive argument in favor of the present tariff system.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat says all the "good western men" whom the Democrats are considering are renegade Republicans. "On the other hand the ones the Republicans have in view have always been sound Republicans and are yet."

Two years ago Harrison was one of the weakest of available Republicans. The elections everywhere evidenced disgust with him and his party. Today it is doubtful if any other Republican could make a stronger canvass. The Democrats can and we hope will win, but if they expect to win, through the weakness of Benjamin Harrison, instead of upon its own merits, they reckon without their host.—Troy (N. Y.) ## Memorial Day.

A joint meeting of members of the G. A. R., W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans, was held at their hall on last Saturday evening. Rev. G. S. Taylor was elected Chairman and Mrs. M. E. Hanson, Secretary. It was decided to hold the exercises on Memorial Day, at the Opera House, and Commander Chalkley and Mrs. M. L. Staley were appointed a committee to procure the Opera House for that occasion. The chairman was instructed to invite Rev. Miller, of Chesham, to deliver the oration. Comrade R. P. Forbes was appointed to make arrangements for the service of the Band; Comrade Staley to arrange for Vocal Music and Comrade Palmer to confer with the Teachers of the school and extend an invitation to them and their scholars to take part in the exercises. The decoration of the Opera House was left to the W. R. C., also the procuring of flowers, etc., for the decoration of the graves at the Cemetery.

J. M. Jones was elected Marshal for Memorial Day, and the Commander of the Post, President of the W. R. C. and Captain of the Sons of Veterans were appointed a Committee on Camp Fire.

The Hon. William Morrison is said to be disgusted with the notion that the Democrats are limited to the State of New York in their choice for a Presidential candidate. "Have we no genuine Democrats outside of New York?" he enquired recently. Doubtless there are "genuine Democrats" elsewhere, William, but none who can so deftly steal a State, make the principal theft a Judge of the Court of Appeals, and then whitewash him while throwing mud at people who objected to it.—N. Y. Tribune.

A settler in Diamante, Entre Rios, Argentine Republic, writes that over eighty reaping machines and forty-five thrashing machines were received in that locality last year, while the cost of the twine used for binding wheat amounted to $60,000, and estimates that this year $150,000 worth of twine will be used. He says that the settlers this year will need 600,000 bags. Within the last two months Diamante has purchased $582,000 worth of agricultural machinery. The yield of wheat during the past season has averaged almost a ton an acre, and is of a superior quality.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The last Republican Congress appropriated not quite $1,000,000,000, and the Democrats called it to account for extravagance. They failed to mention that the French spoliation claims, back pensions and many other matters that Democratic Congresses had been too mean to pay were settled by that Congress. The total included the great expense of carrying on the many departments and of building a new navy. The State of New York, with a population of about one tenth of the whole United States, has, through its Democratic Legislature, proposed appropriations figuring up more than one tenth of the amounts voted by that Congress—although the State has no navy, no foreign service, no great departments, no great pension list and on public debt of importance to be reduced or on which interest must be paid. The Democratic Senate and Assembly of the present year may well be entitled to the term "The Billion Dollar Legislature of New York."—N. Y. Press.

The Century.

The May Century is remarkable for the beginning of a new volume and of three new serials, namely,—"The Life of Columbus," by the distinguished Spanish orator and statesman Emilio Castelar, who, in his first paper considers the age in which Columbus lived;—"The Chosen Valley," a novel of Western life in the irrigation fields, by Mary Halleck Foote, illustrated by the author; and the architect Van Brunt's semi-official and fully illustrated papers on "Architecture at the World's Columbian Exposition," from which the reader will obtain a fresh idea of the magnificence of the housing of the Exhibition at Chicago.

In the way of short stories there are two very interesting ones, namely,—"one by Wolcott Balestire, posthumously printed, called "Captain, my Captain" a story of the town which is the rival of Topaz in "The Naulahka," and the other "A Gray Jacket," Thomas Nelson Page.

Mr. Stedman prints his third paper on the subject of poetry, dealing with "Creation and Self-Expression." Among the great poems discussed Mr. Stedman devotes considerable space to the Book of Job, and ends his paper with some further comments on Browning.

Examples are given of the work of the American printers, Carl Marr, J. H. Dolph, and the sculptor, Herbert Adams, with a sketch of these men by Mr. Fraser, of the Century Art Department.
